Licensed Property Overview

License Grant
 Licensor hereby grants to Licensee an exclusive, world-wide License to use the HDI Technology solely in the Cannabis Application, for the purpose of processing Cannabis Materials using the SPR in the Cannabis Industry. (The aforesaid license grant is herein sometimes referred to as the "License").

Licensor grants an exclusive license to all Licensor Intellectual Property and patented technology and creates a partnership to bring their patented controlled cavitation process to the cannabis industry.

License Property
 Licensor has the Shockwave Power™ Reactor (SPR) rights for mixing and Heating, Hydrogenating substances, Continuous Hydrodynamic cavitation crystallization, and four other patents.

Licensor is the owner of certain Technology called ShockWave Power™. Licensor owns Intellectual Property ("IP", defined below), manifested in Patents, Trade Secrets, and Know How, which are embodied in Licensor's proprietary ShockWave Power Reactor/Extractor ("SPR™"), and which IP is useful in a variety of industries including but not limited to those industries that extract, mix, heat, hydrate, homogenize and crystallize materials.
